HOMEGROWN & HANDMADE BOOTH PACKAGE

Tent Vendor Supervisor

Heather Duhn – stuckinit@live.com

Policies and Procedures 2019

Fall Fair educates the public on agriculture and gives an opportunity for families to spend a fun weekend together participating in all kinds of activities. The homegrown and handmade vendor portion of the Fair was included in order to present to area residents homegrown and handmade products and related demonstrations in their area. The booth rental committee reserves the right to decide what products or displays will be permitted at the Fair. Education and demonstration of products and services related to farming, cultivation, food preparations, handmade items, etc... will be given first consideration. All decisions made regarding the acceptance or refusal of an application is final.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Porcupine District Agricultural Society is a non-profit organization. The Fall Fair Committee consists of many volunteers who dedicate their time and effort in order to present a safe, educational and fun weekend for families in our community. As a participant in our Fall Fair, we, the committee, expect you and your staff to support the efforts put out by our members by displaying respectful conduct towards members of the society, exhibitors, other vendors and the public visiting our fair. Any behaviours deemed inappropriate, offensive, confrontational and or physical in any manner will be dealt with immediately. Consequences will vary depending on the offence and can go anywhere from being asked to leave the fair grounds to refusal of booth rental for the following year. All incidents during the fair hours would be reported immediately to the booth directors. It is our sincere hope that everyone participating at our fair will have a pleasant experience and all involved will ensure our Fair to be a successful one.
